*Anthony Crupi* *MARCH 30, 2006 - *Cartoon Network's Adult Swim has five new series, two pilots and a handful of anime acquisitions on tap for 2006-07. New animated strips include Death Clock Metalocalypse, a satirical look at a cataclysmic heavy metal band; Frisky Dingo (formerly titled Whiskey Tango Six), which focuses on a diabolical genius named Killface and his attempts to kick-start the Apocalypse; and the irreverently titled Assy McGee, starring a cartoon cop whose nickname derives from the fact that he looks like a giant derriere. Also in the hopper are Saul of the Mole Men, a mix of live-action, puppetry and animation set to debut in late 2006, and Lucy, The Daughter of the Devil, a story about a Left Coast girl and how her doting dad, the Dark Lord Satan, interferes with her dating life. Adult Swim has ordered 10 episodes of Lucy in anticipation of a debut in the fourth quarter of this year. end quote for anime they're picking up Eureka Seven and Bleach...
